CHIESA LA QUERCIA - AZZANO DECIMO, ITALY

Our town is in the affluent and secularised northeastern region of Italy. The church was planted in 2018 and we are a small congregation of about 20 people, from 7 different nationalities, in a town of about 15,000 non-believers. In the midst of traditionally rooted Catholicism our heartbeat and commitment is to share the good news by teaching the Bible, connecting with families and youth, as we seek to continue serving our city. We are extremely grateful for our 1st baptism planned around Easter 2024.

NEEDS

- Financial family support: need approximately USD2000 per month which will allow Franco to continue with his bi-vocational call and face rapidly increased living expenses, and enable us to soon send our eldest son to university.
- Our van, used for family needs, work and church, requires urgent maintenance, with an estimated cost of USD1,600.
- Three of our family are also in urgent need of new glasses.
