

About Acts 29

Who We Are

Acts 29 is an organization and global network of churches bound together by relationship, theology, and church planting.

What We're About

Acts 29 is about more and better churches.

What We Do

Acts 29 catalyzes a movement of effective and multiplying churches worldwide.

What We Believe

Acts 29 is a theologically driven, gospel-centered organization that stands in the tradition of historic evangelical confessionalism. We affirm the Lausanne Covenant and embrace a reformed view of salvation. We are committed to the following five distinctives:

- Gospel centrality in all of life –
- The sovereign grace of God in saving sinners –
- The work of the Holy Spirit for life and ministry –
- The equality of men and women and the principle of male servant leadership –
- The local church as God's primary mission strategy –

Additional Talking Points

- Of the eight billion people in the world today, only about one-third would call themselves Christians. That means billions of people don't know Jesus. We want people from every tribe, tongue, and nation to know and worship him. We believe that to be faithful to the Great Commission's call to make disciples is to be passionate about church planting. This is why we plant churches worldwide.
- We're on mission to catalyze a movement of effective and multiplying churches worldwide.
- Acts 29 is a global network for churches serious about church planting. There's an African proverb that says, "If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together." We can best bring the gospel to the ends of the earth when we do it in partnership with churches that share our passion for making disciples of all nations. Our efforts are multiplied and our God is glorified when we work together to advance his kingdom on earth.

- We're made up of approximately 650 partner churches in nearly 50 countries.
On any given Sunday, our churches are worshiping in over 30 languages!
- We believe the church is God's primary mission strategy on earth. Therefore, being faithful to the Great Commission's call to make disciples means being passionate about church planting.
- Local churches stand as a trusted presence in a community, offering hope and help amid trials and tragedies, proclaiming Christ, and seeing lives transformed by his gospel and for his glory. As we plant more churches worldwide, we advance Christ's kingdom on earth. This is the beauty of church planting.
