

Worship & Arts Director | North Metro Fellowship Denver Church

Overview

Fellowship Denver Church is seeking a North Metro Worship & Arts Director to lead and develop the worship ministry at our growing North Metro congregation. The ideal candidate will be a driven leader who is rooted in the Scriptures and led by the Spirit. This candidate should love developing people, building healthy teams, and should exemplify musical excellence.

About Fellowship Denver Church

Founded 18 years ago in the heart of the city, Fellowship Denver exists to help people discover and follow the original Jesus. With two growing congregations serving around 1,200 people, we are committed to historic orthodoxy, cultural engagement, and equipping disciples to live faithfully in the modern world. Our vision is to see a gospel movement that fills Denver with spiritually mature, missionally engaged followers of Christ. The North Metro congregation is located in Olde Town Arvada, Colorado, and was launched nearly three years ago. North Metro currently has four rotating bands and two coordinators that oversee music, planning, and production.

The Role

The NM Worship & Arts Director will:

- Lead Worship & Arts ministry and teams for the North Metro Congregation
- Develop and disciple local musicians and worship leaders
- Help plan, lead, and coordinate worship services and special events
- Oversee Sunday Worship teams and production
- Foster a collaborative, gospel-centered worship culture through Spirit-empowered and biblically rooted leadership both on and off the platform
- Partner with staff across both congregations for unified service planning and execution
- Help develop North Metro Prayer Room(s)

Who We're Looking For
